THE second Universiti Brunei Darussalam (UBD) Advance Photography exhibition was launched yesterday at the Inspiring Hall, at the Student Centre, showcasing the photography skills of the students.

Launching the exhibition was Hjh Anis Faudzulani Hj Dzulkiilee, UBD assistant vice chancellor (Corporate and Administration).

The photography exhibition portrays the works of the current advance photography students who have been working hard to master the arts and techniques of photography.

The work on display are divided into different categories, ranging from abstract to nature and architecture.

"Photography is not only about taking photos but also teaches students to master different skills such as planning, editing and critically evaluating photographs using theoretical frame works and lastly to produce professional images," said Fatin Hanani Hamdani, one of the participating exhibitors and student representative for the exhibition.

Apart from the breathtaking photographs showcased by the students, the two-day photo exhibition also
